Condition of the Richmond Banks. The Richmond Enquirer says, to avoid any erroncous impression as to the condition of the Richmond Banks, we have made enquiry, and are authorized, by the officers of the four larger banks, to say that the amount of discount has not receive abolition petitions, was certainly not been curtailed in the least degree, but is at pre-sent larger than on the 1st of September. While this is the condition of the Richmond banks, there an advocate of Southern rights. FINANCIAL AFFAIRS OF THE SOUTH .- The Savannah Republican says: An idea has taken general possession of the publie mind that we are to have a season of great financial trouble the coming winter and spring. This, it is said, will arise chiefly from two causes; the grop. Some other causes have been named, but they are of an inconsiderable nature, when compared with the above. As regards the losses on shipments to Liverpool the past season, they will, no doubt, affect injuriously a targe class of the buyers on this side of the water, and some will have to make up their minds to go by the board. Such losses, however, will be partial in their operation, being confined to but a small portion of the great popular mass, and those immediately connected with them. The Old Jackson Doctrines on Secession and Disunion A MOS KENDALL has written a letter to the Washington Constitution, on the above sub-"Let it be remembered that the question is not now what the South ought to do in case of an actual and irremediable outrage upon her rights and institutions. The threat is to secede if Mr. Lincoln shall be elected .-

Will his mere election absolve the people of the South from their allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States, or relieve the President from the duty of defending the one and executing the other?-This is the real question under discussion. You talk about coercing States. States are not the subjects upon which the Constitution and laws of the United States oper-

LOCAL ITEMS.

STEALING WIFEAT .- This morning about sunrise, a gentleman, residing in the First Ward, discovered two negroes with a boat load of wheat at one of the wharves below the Pioneer mills. Upon questioning the negroes they said that they were slaves of Mr. William Lyles, of Prince George's county, who resides on Piscataway creek, below Fort Washington. They further stated that their master was up at the store of Messrs, Blacklock & Marshall, This was soon ascertained to be untrue, and a porter of Mr. Blacklock was at once sent to take the wheat in charge. The boat had been moved and was found hidden near the lower ship-yard, where the wheat was seized by the porter for the benefit of Mr Lyles.

Meanwhile information had been given to the police and Officers Warder and Nelson. put on the route of the negroes. Officer Warder, soon overhauled one of the darkeys who give his name as Nick Jones, at the Pioneer Mills. The other negro who has been acting as "Overseer" for Mr. Lyles, was caught on Union street, after a hard run. Nick too broke from the officers and gave them a long chase through the streets of the First Ward. He was caught however, near Yeates' Garden, and after a hearing before Mayor Price, both parties were committed to

CARRIED TO WASHINGTON .- We noticed a few days since, the arrest of a man, named Simon Myers, charged with stealing a quantity of clothing the property of Mr. W. Miller, of Washington, and his subsequent commitment to jail to await the requisition of the President of the United States. It appears, however, from a letter from District Attorney Ould that owing to the failure of Congress to pass a law authorizing the President of the United States to make requisition for criminals escaping from the District of Columbia into the States, he has no such power. Mr. Miller, tion here to-day, and made the following owever, withdrew his complaint, and justice Price ordered the discharge of Myers. No sconer was he discharged than he was taken in charge by officers Harrover of Washington, and Warder of this city, placed on poard the steamer George Page, and carried to Washington to answer the charge.

GOOSE CREEK LAND FOR SALE .- By virtue of a decree, pronounced by the Circuit Court of Fauquier County, on the 7th day of September, 1860, in the suit of Payne vs. Green, &c., I shall proceed to sell, on Wednesday the 10th day of October, 1860, on the premises, the VALUABLE TRACT OF LAND, of which the late C. R. Ayres died possessed. The farm contains about FIVE HUNDRED AND TWENTY ACRES, well wooded and watered, and much of it in sod. It lies upon Goose Creek and the Manassas Railroad, and adjoins the village of Rectortown, in the county of Fauquier. Upon one side is the Railroad Depot, and on the other the well known Milan Mills --This part of Fauquier is noted for the beauty and fertility of its land; and it is seldom that so favorable an opportunity of purchasing a fine grain and grazing turm is offered.

The improvements are indifferent, although there are several beautiful building sites upon the farm. The Commissioner is authorized to divide the land, and sell it to suit purchasers. Immediate possession will be given of all but one negro cabin and the growing corn, if a sale of the personality is effected. TERMS OF SALE .- The purchase money will be divided into five annual instalments with interest on the whole, for which the purchaser will be required to execute his bonds with approval personal security, and the title to the land will be reserved as a further security for the money, to be sold at the risk of the purchaser on failure to pay said in-
